WHEAT AND GORN DECLINE CENT EACH

Latter Weak for First Time in Several Days-Large Decrease in Wheat Visible Checks Loss Temperarily-Oats Down.

OMAHA, July 1, 1906. As has been the case for the last week, the rains in the northwest did not have much effect on the wheat market. There was a little firmness early, but selling turned the market weak. There was a reaction when the visible came, showing a larger decrease than expected, but this gave way to weakness again and the close was more than a cent below yesterday. The cash demand does not imposed. the close was more than a cent below yesterday. The cash demand does not im-prove. There were large deliveries on July contracts at Chicago and the traders seemed to run away from them. No deliveries were made on the local exange. Corn showed weakness for the first time in several days, opening a trifle losse, yielding and closing about a cent down. Weather was ideal and receipts at Chicago were larger than expected.

Outs were weak with the rest of the market.

World's shipments were 10,672,000 bu.
wheat and 4,378,000 bu. corn. Wheat visible decreased 1,017,000 bu.; corn increased 1,367,600 bu.; cats decreased, 839,000 bu.
Primary wheat receipts were 465,000 bu.
and shipments 205,060 bu. Corn receipts were 805,000 bu. and shipments 58,000 bu.
Last year the day was a holiday. Clearances were 27,000 bu. wheat and 18,223 bbis.
flour.

ances were 27,000 bu. wheat and 16,223 bbis. flour.

Liverpool closed unchanged to 3d lower on wheat, and 3d higher on corn.

From the Chicago Tribune: "Quite a strong buillish sentiment is running in the oats trade. The belief is widespread that the crop will turn cut light in such a large portion of the area as to cut down the total yield materially. With this as a basis and recalling the disappearances of the almost record breaking crop of last year the investor and speculator are willing to support the market on weak spots. There was a fair shipping call at the close of the week but only moderate business in a shipping way. There was an active trade all week and the market showed substantial gains independent of other grains."

active, with prices anywhere from strong to 10c higher. As has been the case every day, the good kinds were especially sought after and sold as high as $5.75, the best price paid for fat cattle any day since last september, when $5.90 was reached. Even the medium kinds of cattle, which buyers were inclined to lay down on last Fricay, sold to better advantage.

Cows and heifers were in very light supply, but anything in the way of good killers met with ready sale and they, too, could be quoted as strong to 10c higher. Fractically everything answering to that description changed hands in very good season. Very common or canner stuff was inclined to be slow as usual. Good grass cows, however, are selling better than at the low time, due to the fact that fed stock is an scarce.
